"This book is fun and a pure delight to peruse. You and your child will laugh and enjoy a fun time together as you look for all the odd numbers on each page."- Book Talk

"Interesting concept for a children's book. Math teachers will love it – at all primary levels. Interesting illustrations for some good discussion with children. Colorful and informative!"- Learning Magazine

"This is a product that I can recommend without any reservations. There is nothing within this story that I would want to change. It provides a humorous way to learn the concepts of odd and even and will be one of your child's favorite books to read!"- The Old Schoolhouse Magazine

One Odd Day is a humorous, rhythmic, read-aloud story about a boy who awakens to find that everything around him is "odd." He has one shoe, three sleeves on his shirt, and his dog has five legs.... Things are no better at school, either. Will his odd day end when he goes to bed that night? Children and adults will delight in finding all the "odd" items and numbers hidden in the art!

One Odd Day was vetted for accuracy by Kathy Skinner, recipient of the 2004 Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics Teaching for the State of Texas. Children, parents, and teachers will love the "For Creative Minds" educational section that includes:

- Odd Fun Facts and Counting
- An Odd Coloring Chart
- "How Odd?" Oddities
- Creative Sparks

There are also "Related Websites" and "Teaching Activities" on Sylvan Dell Publishing's website, www.SylvanDellPublishing.com, to help parents and educators expand the learning possibilities!

Look for both sequels, My Even Day and My Half Day, too, both available from Sylvan Dell Publishing!

About the Authors and Illustrator

Doris Fisher loves writing in verse. In addition to co-authoring My Half Day, My Even Day and One Odd Day, Doris is the author of Sylvan Dell's Happy Birthday to Whooo? A Baby Animal Riddle Book. She has also written a biography of Kelly Clarkson and the soon to be published series, Grammar All-Stars: The Parts of Speech. Doris is a member of the Society for Children's Book Writers and Illustrators (SCBWI), and she and her husband live in the Houston area. They have two grown children.

Dani Sneed is a full-time engineer and mother, part-time writer and former substitute teacher. While teaching, she enjoyed explaining math in silly, memorable ways. In addition to My Half Day, One Odd Day and My Even Day, Dani has written two bilingual books (Confetti Eggs / Cascarones and Punched Paper / Papel Picado), several badge books for the Boy Scouts of America and Ferris Wheel: George Ferris and His Amazing Invention. Dani lives in the Houston suburbs with her family and their dog, Muffin, and cat, Cupcake.

Karen Lee has a humorous imagination and it shows in her illustrations—these books are full of hidden odd and even items! In addition to illustrating My Half Day, One Odd Day and My Even Day, Karen has written and illustrated ABC Safari for Sylvan Dell. She is the recipient of the 2004 SCBWI Magazine Merit Award for Illustration for her work in Highlights for Children, and all of her illustrations are watercolor paintings on illustration board. She and her husband, also an illustrator, are raising their family outside of Raleigh, NC.
