

General Certification of Conformity

Based on component and material testing provided by our printer and also from a review of industry evidence that overwhelmingly finds that books as a class are safe and fall within CPSIA compliance standards for lead, phthalate and applicable ASTMs, we believe our books are safe, do not pose a health risk to children and offer this general certification of conformity required by section 14(g) of the Consumer Product Safety Act, 15 U.S.C. § 2063(g).

1. The following children's picture books are covered by this general certification of conformity:
