

Spring 2011 Release
From Sylvan Dell Publishing

Chicken Little may have thought the sky was falling but Peter Pika is sure the glaciers are melting and is off to talk to the Mountain Monarch about it. Joined along the way by friends Tammy Ptarmigan, Sally Squirrel, Mandy Marmot, and Harry Hare, they all wonder what will happen to them if the glaciers melt. Where will they live, how will they survive? When Wiley Wolverine tries to trick them, can the Mountain Monarch save them? More importantly, can the Mountain Monarch stop the glaciers from melting?

Donna Love is an award-winning author who lives in Montana, where her husband is a district ranger in the Lolo National Forest. Donna's first books include Loons, Diving Birds of the North, and Awesome Ospreys, Fishing Birds of the World. Awesome Ospreys received a Skipping Stones Press Honor Award in 2006, for promoting ecological understanding and cooperation around the world. With a background in art education, Donna substitute teaches at the elementary and high school level. Throughout her years as a substitute and while raising her own children, she found she had a gift for explaining nature to children and now uses her writing to help her share nature with children.

Now is the perfect time for Donna to visit your school or library! You can schedule an event with Donna (www.donnalove.com), or through our public relations manager, Ashlee Rowe (AshleeRowe@sylvandellpublishing.com).
